The above prices are provided as guidelines only. An estimate will be provided after inspection of the volume in question. The actual price is based upon the time required to complete the job plus the cost of materials. Books may have hidden problems which are apparent only once work commences. Clients will be notified immediately in this instance to discuss the extent of additional treatment.

Prices for additional services available upon request. Please inquire with your needs. A 50% deposit will be required before work commences. Balance is due upon completion. Rush jobs will be accepted only if there is time available and will be charged at one-and one-half times the above rates.
